Who we are:

The Association offers a home to members and former members, as well as friends and supporters of the German Armed Forces Flying Units, including the staff of their support organizations and their families.

- We are a community of those who are connected to German military aviation.

Traditional communities or associations can join our association while preserving their own identity.

- We are an umbrella organization. We offer the opportunity to meet, exchange ideas and learn from each other across the boundaries of weapons systems.
- We explicitly address Air Force, Army and Navy.

Our Members are united by their heart and passion for military aviation.

We encourage exchanges with active and non-active soldiers of all ranks and ages. We provide each other authentic perspectives and create and foster new skills and abilities.

The Association preserves traditions of forgone generations of airmen and their supporting organizations.

We support the Bundeswehr and, in return, the Bundeswehr supports us. Each year we celebrate an International Aviator's Meeting in which many delegations from German Flying Wings and Squadrons participate.

Every year at this meeting, we award a Best Price in recognition of special achievements in the field of military aviation.

We feel committed to the spirit of our founding fathers for reconciliation between former war opponents and for the reunification between the East and the West.

The Association maintains connections, based on common values, norms and ideals, with foreign aviation associations to promote international and cultural understanding.

In addition, the Association looks after and provides support for comrades in need.
